insurance as applicable; personal health and travel insurance; vaccinations; VISA applications and other necessary governmental approvals or permissions.

4.2.3 The Home Institution is responsible for collecting and reviewing student requests and applications for study and formally recommending qualified students to the Receiving Institution for the study desired. Members of the "Monitoring Committee" from each respective Institution will oversee the experience for each student.

4.2.4 The Receiving Institution will make the final determination as to the acceptance of the student in each case, according to its policies and standards, and will notify the Home Institution in writing of the acceptance or rejection. The Home Institution will notify the student of the decision.

4.2.5 Each student accepted by the Receiving Institution will be expected to participate in the Receiving Institution at the same level of competency as any other student participating in the Program.

4.2.6 The Receiving Institution will have the right to remove any student from the Program. In this instance, the Receiving Institution will provide written notification to the Home Institution. The Home Institution will comply with the request for removal immediately.

4.2.7 Students who apply and are accepted to participate in a student elective rotation at a clinical site will comply with both all of the policies and procedures of the clinical site and the by-laws and regulations of the student elective program, as applicable, including but not limited to CLINOSOL guidelines and requirements for international students. Failure to so comply may result in immediate dismissal from the student elective program. Within the context of an approved Program, students will be permitted to provide only direct, supervised medical care and related services as may be permitted and that are consistent with the requirements of the Receiving Institution and Clinical site.

4.2.8 General orientation to a Program will be provided by the Receiving Institution, and orientation to a particular student elective rotation at a clinical site will be the responsibility of the clinical site.

4.2.9 For a student of one Institution wishing to participate in a student elective clinical rotation or to undertake a short-term non-degree research program under a specific faculty member(s) at the other Institution, the following must be completed:

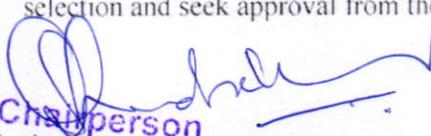

4.2.9.1 Draft and submit a detailed study program for approval by the Home Institution.

4.2.9.2 If approved by the Home Institution, the Home Institution will submit the proposal to the Receiving Institution.

4.2.9.3 If approved by the Receiving Institution, the Receiving Institution and proposed supervising faculty will provide formal approval in writing to the Home Institution.

4.2.9.4 Upon approval, the Receiving Institution will render all necessary cooperation to facilitate the proposal.

4.2.9.5 Students undertaking a short-term research program may find their research experience enhanced by auditing advanced research courses at the Receiving Institution. The trainee's research advisors at the Receiving Institution shall advise the student in course selection and seek approval from the appropriate school for trainee participation in classes.

6. Applicable Rules; Emergencies.

The Parties agree that the clinical and academic requirements of both educational Institutions will be respected and that all current policies, rules, regulations, and/or guidelines covering matters applicable to a Program will be shared with, and carefully followed by, the faculty members and students participating in the Program. In the event of a faculty member or student exposure to infectious or environmental hazards or other occupational injuries as a result of the clinical or research assignment, the faculty member or student will seek immediate medical attention consistent with the site's occupational exposure procedures. Such emergency care will be provided at the usual and customary charges.

7. Non-Discrimination.

The Parties agree to comply with local rules, regulations, executive orders, and laws forbidding unlawful discrimination.

8. Relationship of the Parties.

This MOU shall not be construed to create a relationship of a joint venture, partnership, brokers, employees, servants or agents between the Parties. The Parties to this MOU are acting as independent contractors representing their own respective independent Institution. With respect to any employee compensation for services provided in connection with this MOU, each Institution will be responsible for paying their own employees (including faculty), and properly withholding their own employees' taxes and other costs and fees as may be required.

This Memorandum of Understanding is a non-contractual, non-binding statement of the Parties' desire to engage in the exchange programs and activities outlined herein. This Memorandum of Understanding is not binding or enforceable on either Party by the other, and creates no legal responsibilities or obligations. In no event shall either Party be liable to the other for any direct, indirect, consequential, special (including multiple or punitive), or incidental damages of any kind arising from, and/or related to this MOU.

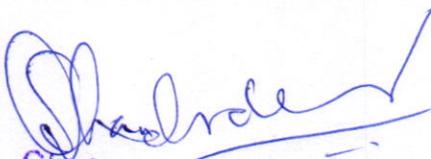

9. Use of Institutions' Name: Advertising and Publicity.

Neither Institution will use the other Institution's name, or any name that is likely to suggest that it is related to the other Institution, in any advertising, promotion or sales literature without obtaining the express written/mutually agreed oral consent of the other Institution.

express written consent, shall disclose to any third party any such Confidential Information. For the purposes of this MOU, the following definitions and exceptions shall apply to such information:

10.1 Definition. "Confidential Information" means any technical or business information furnished by one Party to the other pursuant to this MOU that is specifically designated as confidential. The disclosing party shall mark same with a written Confidential Information legend indicating its confidential status. The disclosing party shall document Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually in a written notice and deliver the notice to the receiving party as soon as possible within fifteen (15) days after the disclosure. In the notice, the disclosing party shall summarize the Confidential Information and reference the time and place of disclosure.

10.2 Obligations and Limitations. The receiving party shall maintain Confidential Information in confidence, except that the receiving party may disclose or permit the disclosure of Confidential Information to its trustees, directors, officers, employees, consultants, and advisors, who are obligated to maintain its confidential nature and who need to know the Confidential Information for purposes of this MOU. The receiving party may only use and reproduce Confidential Information to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this MOU.

10.3 Exceptions. The obligations do not apply to the extent, but the receiving party can demonstrate that the Confidential Information:

10.3.1 was publicly known prior to the time of its disclosure under this MOU;

10.3.2 became publicly known after its disclosure under this MOU through means other than an unauthorized disclosure by the receiving party;

10.3.3 was previously known to, or independently developed or discovered by, the receiving party without use of the Confidential Information;

10.3.4 is or was disclosed to the receiving party by a third party having no obligation of confidentiality with respect to the Confidential Information; or

10.3.5 must be disclosed to comply with applicable laws or regulations or with a court or administrative order, as long as the disclosing party receives prior written notice of the pending compelled disclosure.

10.4 Ownership; No License.

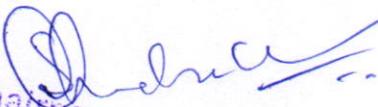

The receiving party acknowledges that the disclosing party (or a third party entrusting Confidential Information to the disclosing party) owns the Confidential Information and all patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, and other intellectual property rights associated with the Confidential Information. Neither party grants an option, license, or conveyance of any intellectual property rights to the receiving party under this MOU.

10.5 Return of Confidential Information; Obligations.

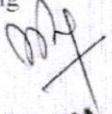

Upon termination of this MOU, or earlier at the request of the disclosing party, the receiving party shall return all originals, copies, and summaries of documents, materials, and other tangible manifestations of Confidential Information in its possession, custody, or control.
